ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.
2. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.
3. The defendant is permitted to possess or use a computer and is allowed access to the Internet. However, the defendant is not permitted to use a computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices, including a cell phone, to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware or software to monitor any computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant to confirm compliance with this condition. The defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation or pretrial services officer. Furthermore, the defendant shall consent to periodic unannounced examinations by the probation or pretrial services officer of any computers, cell phones, or other electronic communication or data storage devices that the defendant has access to, to confirm compliance with this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation or pretrial services officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions imposed in this case, or based upon reasonable suspicion of unlawful conduct by the defendant. Failure to submit to the monitoring or search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant may be grounds for revocation.
4. If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with the employment approved by the probation or pretrial services officer, provided the defendant notifies their employer of the nature of the conviction or charge. The probation or pretrial services officer shall confirm compliance with this notification requirement.
5. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware or software) and other electronic communication or data storage devices or media to include all passwords used and the name of the Internet Service Provider(s). The defendant also shall abide by the provisions of the Computer Restrictions and Monitoring Program approved by the Court.
6. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, business or place of employment, to a search, conducted by a United States probation or pretrial services officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
7. The defendant shall not possess or access with intent to view any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings drawings, videos, or video games depicting and/or describing child pornography as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256 (8), or obscene visual representations of the sexual abuse of children as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 1466A.
8. With the exception of brief, unanticipated, and incidental contacts, to include the defendant's place of employment and/or volunteer activity, the defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18, except for immediate family members, unless in the presence of an adult who has been approved by the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall participate in a mental health and/or sex offender treatment program, approved by the probation officer until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court. The defendant shall abide by all program rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program, including submission to polygraph testing; said testing shall continue throughout the term of supervision in order to monitor and ensure compliance with the conditions of supervision. Further, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for any such
